Purpose

This document presents the findings referring to the tests carried out on the Israeli website "TMS". The tests were performed on the main functions of the site, which include operations such as proper functioning of orders, building a computer, graphic design, menus, information pages, etc.

Application Overview

The website of "TMS" is mainly used as a Web and Mobile website that provides services in the fields building a computer, buying a products for computer, accessories, orders only to israel and etc.
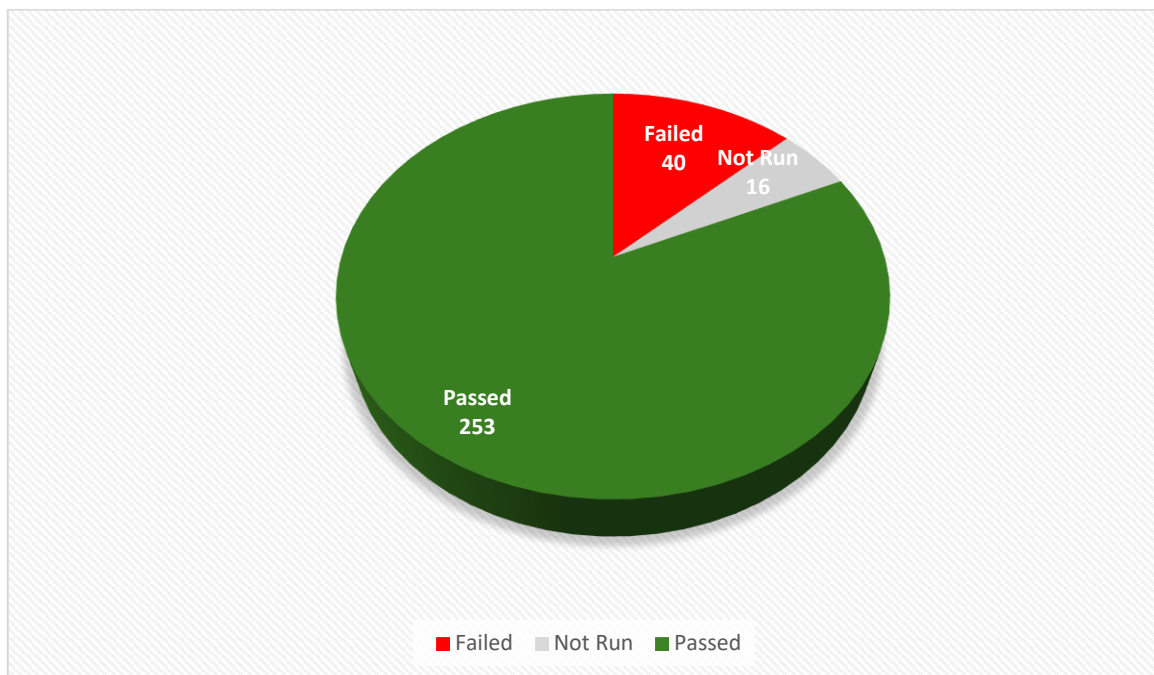

Metrics

Test Cases Status

This pie chart represents the test cases that passed/failed during the initial testing of the website. Most of the test cases passed.
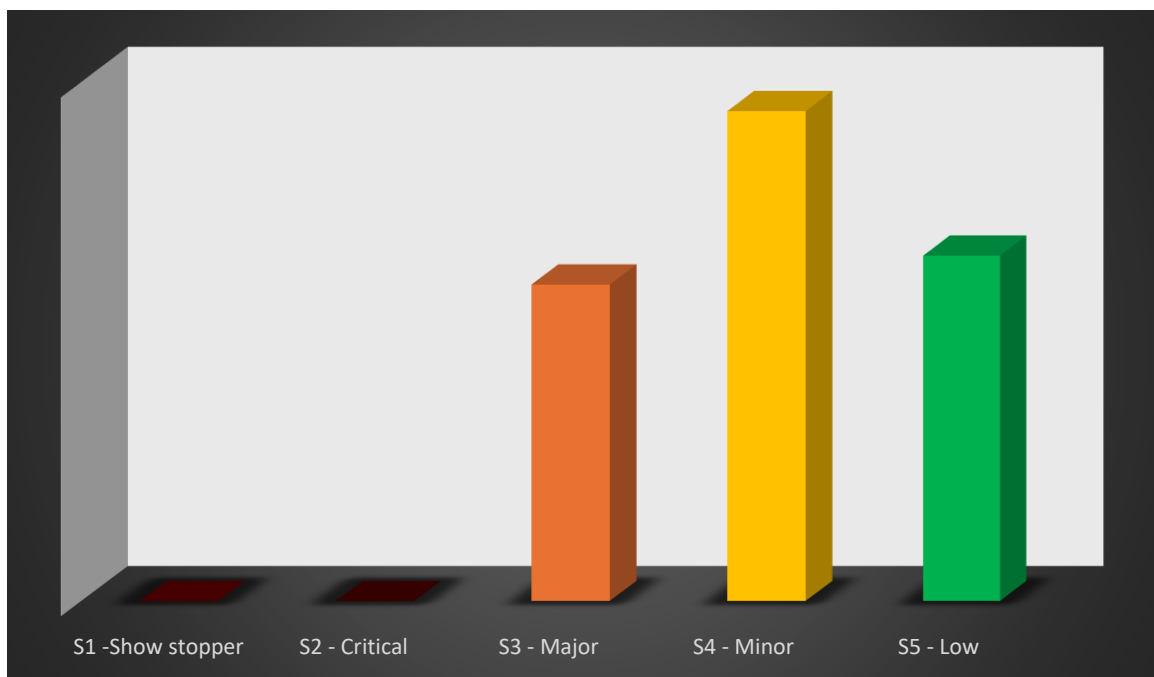

Passed	Failed	Not Run	Total
253	40	16	309

Severity Bugs – Status

The column chart represents the Severity status of the bugs that were found on the "TMS" site. We can infer that most of the bugs were on "Minor" severity level
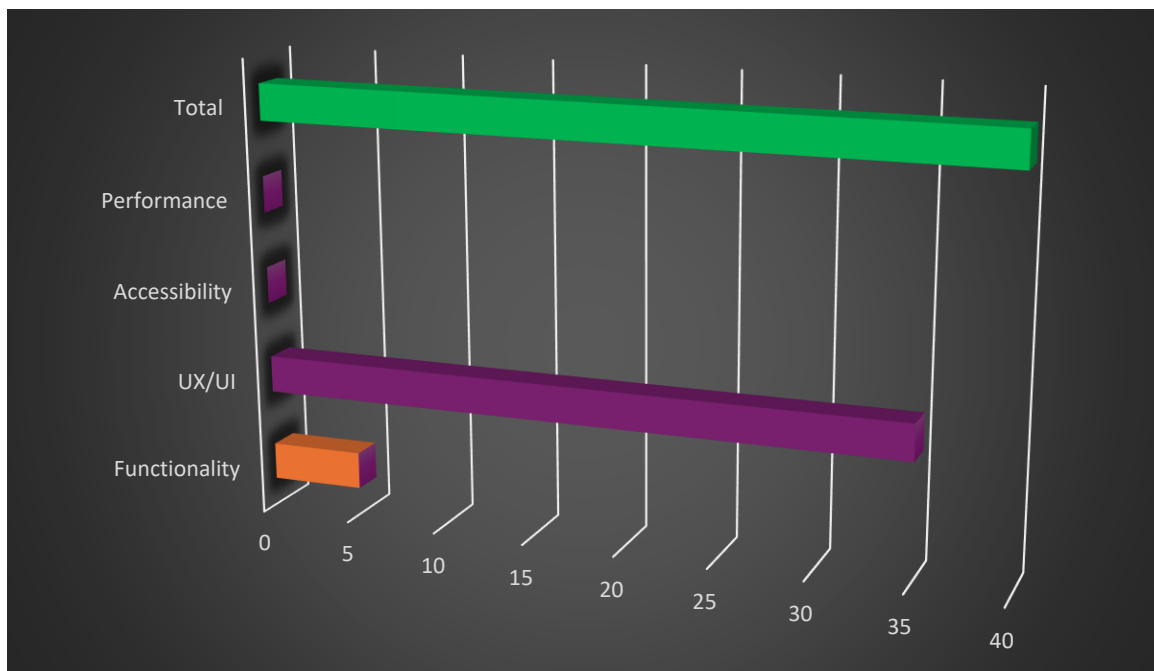

S1 Show Stopper	S2 Critical	S3 Major	S4 Minor	S5 Low	Total
0	0	11	17	12	40

Defect distribution – Module Wise

This table chart represents the Severity of the bugs (on the left) and the test areas (top of the chart) that the bugs were found at.

	Fuctionality	UX/UI	Accessibilty	Performance	Total
S1 – Show stopper	0	0	0	0	0
S2 - Critical	0	0	0	0	0
S3 - Major	3	8	0	0	11
S4 - Minor	2	15	0	0	17
S5 - Low	0	12	0	0	12
Total	5	35	0	0	40

Recommendations

1. Fixing the register area, Numbers and Punctuation are available in most fields
2. Make sure when the site is translated to English the whole site is translating to English

Conclusion – Go

After thorough testing and analysis of the current version of the website, the majority of identified issues are related to UX/UI aspects. These issues, while notable, do not critically impact the core functionality or performance of the site. Therefore, I conclude that the current version is stable and functional enough for release. It is recommended to address the UX/UI issues in subsequent updates to enhance user experience and overall site usability.

As a result, we recommended releasing the site
